

Test

6/20

Answer: 1

The civilization problem lamented in the text, which is, that the history had been created by the people who were discoverers, nature lovers as well as holy ^{noble} persons. Much chances have been given to the learners to learner to be like these but ignore to teach how they can become one of them and how to be helpful for others, nature lovers and to be a ^{real} artist and if they follow what will they become.

passage not grasped in totality

has

1.5

Answer: 2

The difference between ordinary man and an artist is crystal clear. The ordinary man ignores to discovered the universe beauty by paying less attention to creative activities which ultimately give pleasure to spirits. ~~Contrary~~ Contrary to this, an artist

1.5

- General Instructions:
- a- Answer must start from the question statement
 - b- It should be of at least 2 sentences; single sentence answer is not permissible
 - c- Do not add your own opinion unless you are asked for; ideas must be contextual to the passage
 - d- Avoid replicating phrases from the passage; you may extract/copy words from it.
 - e- Give a closing end to each answer
 - f- Ideal length of answer is 5-7 lines. Avoid too lengthy answers
 - g- Also, do not begin answers with the words, "Yes, No, And or Because"

is deeply observed of nature and always tries to search and new things in nature and portray it in his paintings only?

Answer : 3

we can make our lives beautiful and charming by searching beauty of nature and giving more attention to the activities which help in exploring the secrets of nature and universe.

Answer : 4

The writer means by saying "beauty is not an ornament to life" beauty alone does not make life liveable. It only beautifies the living experience. Life become beautiful if we focus on both the beauty and the creative activities to search the beauty of nature.

Answer : 5