check this comment for the solved passage.

History is filled with such successful people who started their lives in most difficult situations but ahead in future were counted in world's famous and successful personalities. Success, respect, and, fame can not be served in plate ; it is only the wealth that can be put in plate and only the condition to get wealth in this way is that your ancestors should have property.

You can buy worldly accessories with wealth but can not by happiness. Sometimes it took take decades to earn respect and a single moment to get humiliation.

work on the grammatical mistakes.

4/10