

ENGLISH COMPREHENSION - Test : 3

Name: Afsheen Sultan Batch: 49 (online)

LMS ID: 28513

Ans: 1

The author laments that art has been ~~vanished~~<sup>cut</sup> from our lives. It is no longer practiced by workmen and has been ~~limited~~ to few sculptors and painters. This has happened because we demand beauty for the sake of ~~pleasure~~<sup>pleasure</sup> only. Moreover, we do not recognize art as an aesthetic activity for spiritual satisfaction.

start with the statement of the question

Ans: 2

For an ordinary man beauty is only a source for ~~more~~<sup>a</sup> pleasure. Whereas, an artist is aware of the beauty of universe as he ~~adds~~ beauty to whatever he makes. In addition to this, an artist uses his aesthetic sense to discover the beauty of universe before applying it to his work. Moreover, an artist ~~does~~<sup>es</sup> his work for his own spiritual pleasure.

Ans: 3

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by giving aesthetic touch to our work. Moreover, we need to understand the real purpose of beauty in order to add charm in our lives.

need more detailed ans here
your ans are too short

Ans: 4

By this expression "Beauty is not an ornament to life", writer means to say that beauty is not ~~at~~ a mere source of pleasure.

It is the <sup>an</sup> integral part of every aspect of our lives.

short

Ans: 5

Art and beauty indeed are a part of our practical <sup>life</sup> and morals. They shape our ~~moral~~ <sup>lives</sup> ~~lives~~ by giving us spiritual pleasure. Life without beauty leads to discontentment that ultimately ends in waste of life. Therefore, art and beauty are essential to shape our lives.

basic grammar and sentence structure is satisfactory need improvement in expression enhance the length of the ans 6/20
over all average