

Title: Work Comes First

Wise people do not think too much about making money. Likewise, healthy people like to eat but do not make it the sole purpose of their lives. Moreover, soldiers like to win battles even if they do not get any reward. In the same way, clergymen like to do his work without making money. ^{Also,} The main purpose of doctor's life is to cure his patient, and fee comes latter. So, a brave person always prefer his work than fee.