Translation

If the world does not attract you, if tears come up in the remembrance of Allah, if the perception of hell makes you appalled, if you pay the right due of worshipping Allah, if the virtue attracts you and you abstain from doing sin. Then you are pious. Some people are pious, and some people show off as they are pious. ~~Becoming religious is a process~~ if it is very fortunate to be pious. Becoming religious is a process of self-ratification. This process takes time, and one has to bear many hardships in this process.
