TRANSLATION:

If the universe does not attract you towards itself, if you get tears thinking about the wrath of Allah, if the thought of hell brings fear of Allah in you, if you worship Allah the way He should be worshipped, if going good deeds attract you and abstain you from going to the wrong path, then indeed you are pious. Some people ~~pretend~~ are pious, and some people become pious. Being pious is a fortunate thing to be. Becoming pious is a continuous process of purifying and fighting the soul. It takes both time and pain.
