

Precis

* Title ①: Value/Importance of goal
in life

② Importance of goal for man.

It is dream of every healthy mind man to ~~get~~ success and money in life but he always gives importance to his duty first. Wages or salary is important but their first and foremost duty is to serve their nation or people. For example, the soldier focuses on his mission and clergyman baptizes and preaches the people. A doctor spends his days and night to save his patients. Although money is important but they give value and importance to their work.

(80 words)

Rough Draft

* Money is not a main objective of well-educated and intellectual man.

* Although food is necessary for life and it can only be purchased achieved through by money

* All healthy minded people give importance to money and success but their goal is their main objective of

* life - for instance soldier, doctor, clergy pay all their duties with heart and soul in spite ~~their~~ wages has a great importance in life but their goal is necessary for them.