TRANSLATION

If world does not attract you toward itself, if fear of God makes you cry, if perception of hell engender fear in you, if you are praying God as guided, if good attracts you toward itself and your feet stops while pursuing evil then you are virtuous. Some are virtuous by birth and other become virtuous later on their life. It is a great fortune to be a virtuous. It is a process of continuous struggle and persistence to be a virtuous. It takes time and hardships are also faced.
