If world does not appeal you, if fear of God brings tears in your eyes, if concept of hell creates fear of God/Allah in your heart. If you worship Allah the way he should be worshipped, If righteous deeds attract you and you do not take steps towards wrong deeds, then you are pious. Some people pretend to be pious but some are actually pious. But ones who are actually pious (righteous). This piouness is a blessing for them. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of sanctification and Mujahideen.
