TRANSLATION TEST - I

If the world does not tempt you to itself; If your eyes tears up with the remembrance of Allah; if the concept of hell inculcates in you the God's fear; If you worship Allah the way ought to; if goodness attracts you to itself and your feet stops you from evil path; then you are the virtuous. Some are born virtuous, some strives for it. Being virtuous is the luck. It is the process of struggle and purification. It takes time and one has to bear hardships for it.
