

Translation

IF you are not attracted towards worldly desires and your heart and soul wants to persuade Allah.

Furthermore, you want to constrain yourself from sins then you are a pious muslim. Although to become pious is not easy rather it is a persistent and slow process which requires time, however, there are also many hardships which you have to endure it to become pious.