Translation — Test: 01

If you <sup>do not</sup> get attracted to worldly life, if your eyes get wet <sup>from</sup> by fearing Allah, if imagining hell makes you fear God, if you worship God the way you should, if goodness attracts you and you remain away from wrong path, then you are <sup>a</sup> virtuous person. Some people are by birth virtuous and some are made so. It is quite fortunate to be virtuous by birth. Becoming virtuous is <sup>a</sup> matter of constant perseverance and struggle. It takes time and one has to go through sorrows and pain to get it.

Mistake in use of article.

If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought to be done, if virtue attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring hardships.
