If the world does not attract you towards itself, if tears come in your eyes due to fear of Allah; if an abstract of hell, creates fear in you; if you worship Allah in such a way as it would be, if goodness attracts you towards itself and your feet stop from going on the path of evil; then you are pious. Some are pious, some become pious.

Being a pious person is good luck. To become pious is continuously an action of conscience. It takes time

If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought to be done, if virtue attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring hardships.
