TRANSLATION:

If the universe does not attract you towards itself, if you get tears thinking about the wrath of Allah, if the thought of hell brings fear of Allah in you, if you worship Allah the way He should be worshipped, if ^{doing} good deeds attract you and abstain you from going to the wrong path, then indeed you are pious. Some people ~~are~~ are pious, and some people become pious.

Being pious is a fortunate thing to be. ^{If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought to be done, if virtue attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious.} ^{Some are both righteous, some become righteous.} Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring hardships.
