

Try to write in correct sentence form

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

In English past tense is followed by past

Q5
punctuate Hodga

while taking a nap on the porch, one hot summer day, he dreamed that a stranger promised to give him ten pure pieces of gold. The stranger placed them in hodja's hand one by one, until he reached the tenth piece, which he to give him. Hodga promised me ten. What are waiting for?" said the man. "You promised me ten. When, he woke up, he immediately looked at his hand, but it was empty. He quickly shut his eyes again, and said "all right, I'll settle for nine."

X

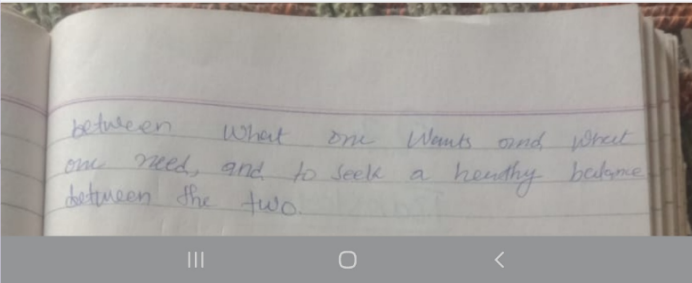

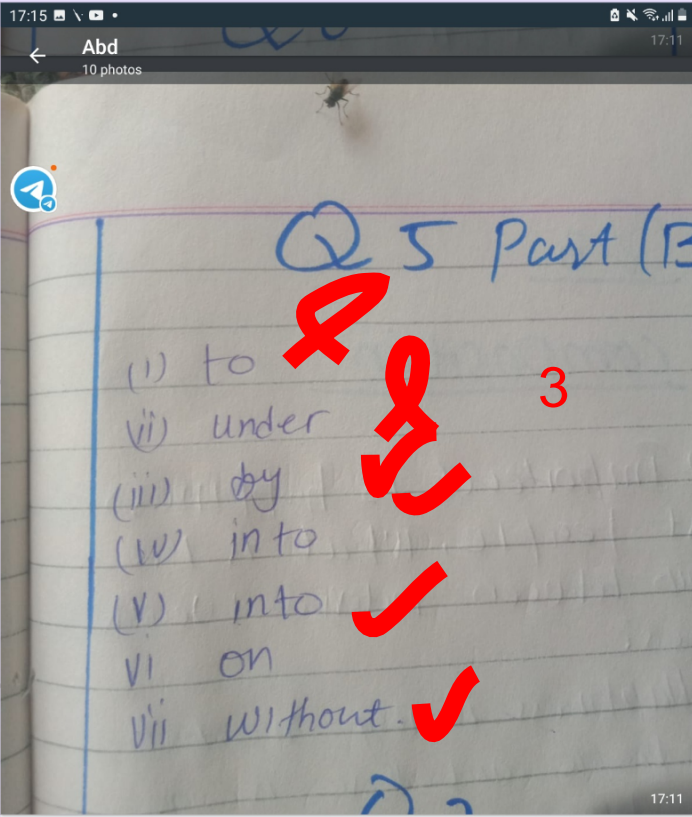

—

Hodga

⊗

Capatalization is also part of punctuation

Nine

Qu

Correction

(A) his knowledge of politics and international relations aids him in his work.

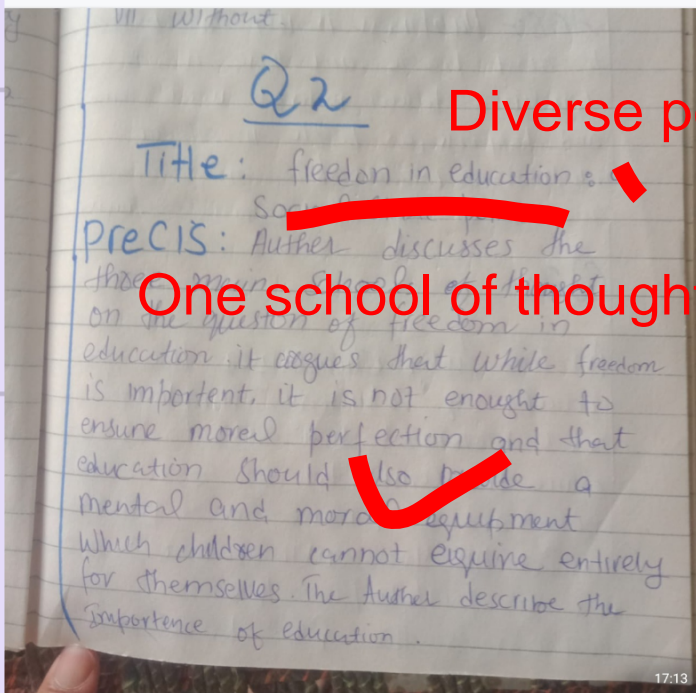

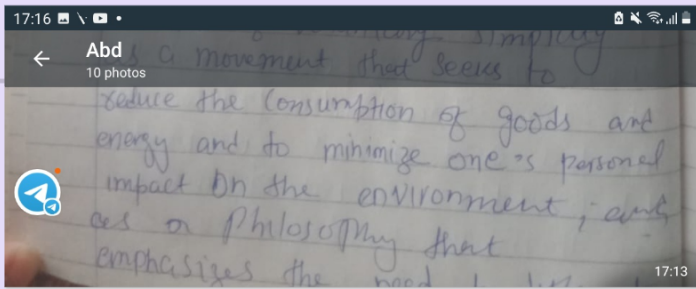

(B) ² The ambassador, with his family and staff, invites you to a reception at the embassy on a day afternoon.

(C) This year, he will sit for the CSS examination.

(H) I am teaching to hunt for words and idioms in my English books.

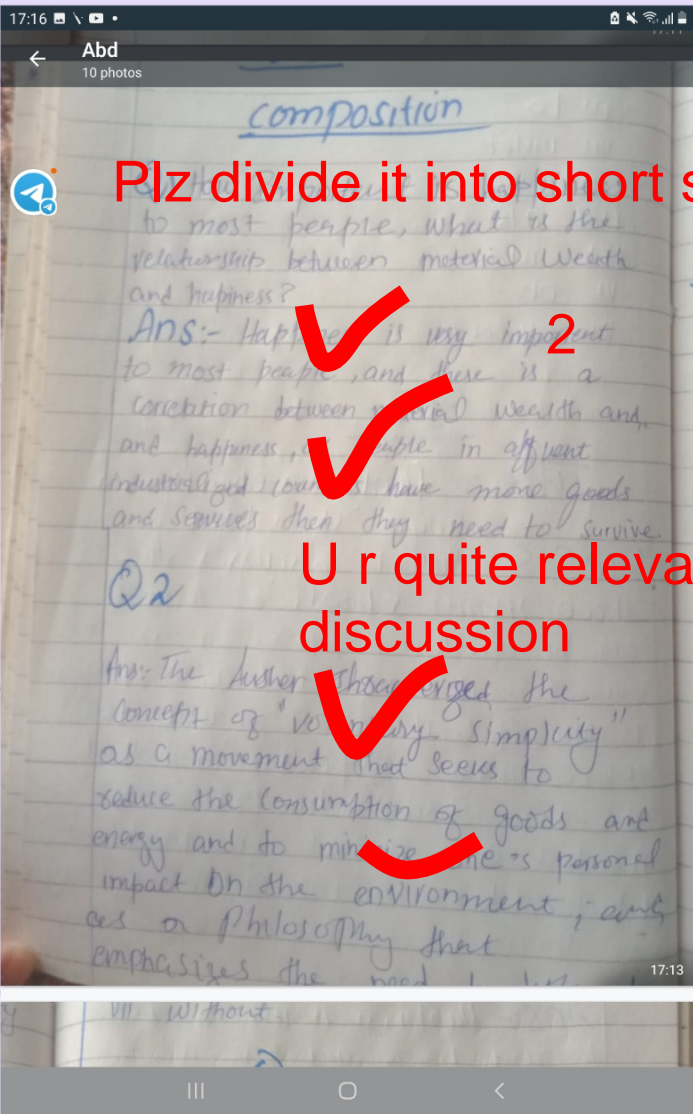

(G) he came to me to inquire about the salary attached to the appointment.

(F) If some of you make a noise, they will be punished.

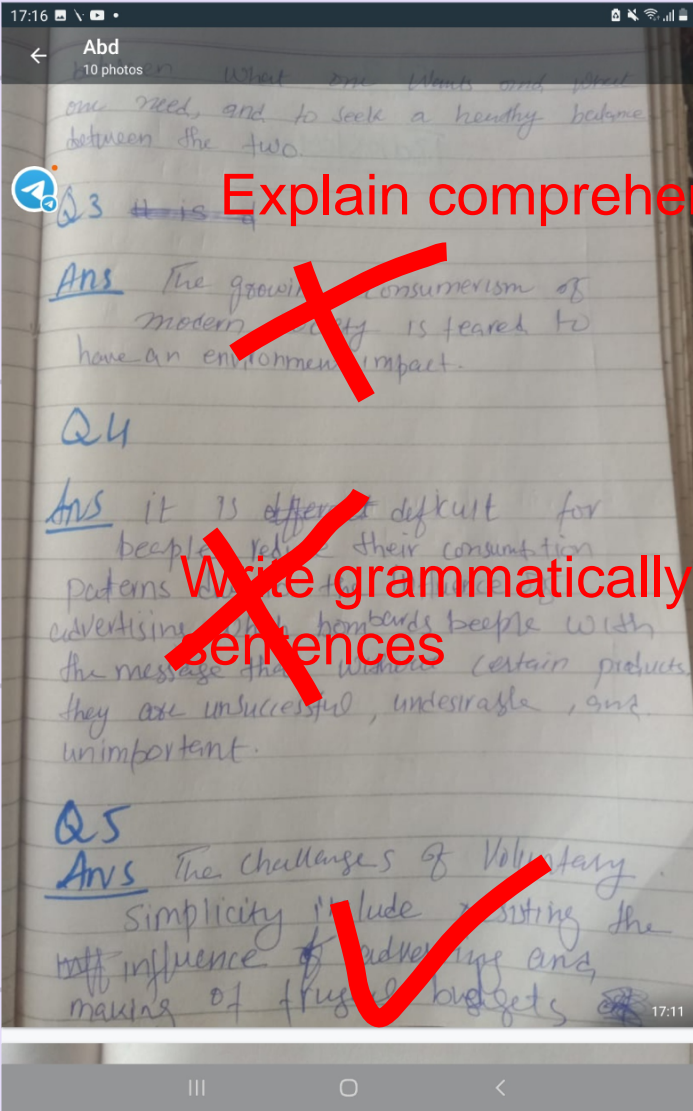

Diverse perspectives

One school of thought argues that

Plz divide it into short sentences

U r quite relevant in discussion

Abd

10 photos

What are wants and needs one need, and to seek a healthy balance between the two.

Q3 ~~It is~~ Explain comprehensively

Ans The growing consumerism of modern society is feared to have an environmental impact.

Q4

Ans it is difficult for people to reduce their consumption patterns. Advertising hammers people with the message that without certain products they are unsuccessful, undesirable, and unimportant.

Q5

Ans The challenges of Voluntary simplicity include resisting the influence of advertising and making of frugal budgets.

17:11

