If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought to be done, if virtue attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring

If the world does not attract you to itself, if the fear of Allah brings tears to your eyes, if just having the belief develops your fear of God in you, if you pray to Allah in a way it should be done, if you get pulled towards good deeds and not your past sins, if you go towards the way of evil then you are virtuous. Some are virtuous and some become virtuous. Some are virtuous and some become virtuous. This is to constantly be clean and striving. This comes time and difficulties to endure.
