

Service is more important than money

Use another word

Money is not the prime objective of the well-educated, intellectual, and brave people, rather it is a matter of making dinner. The healthy minded people who are serving for them delivering their service is much more important than money. A good soldier is primarily concerned with fighting and winning battles. Similarly, a clergyman preaches without any regard for his pay. ~~So~~ doctors, who may lose their fee to cure their patients, rather than kill them and get it.
