

Title: Work Comes First

Make it bit attractive

Wise people do not think too much about making money. Like healthy people like to eat but do not make it the sole purpose of their lives. Moreover, soldiers like to win battles even if they do not get any reward. In the same way, clergymen like to do his ^{their} work without making money. The main purpose of doctor's life is to cure his patients, and fee comes latter. So, a brave person always prefer his work than fee.
