

Precis:

Mock Test 1.

Title: " Money Is Not The Only Goal of Profession "

Precis:

A well-awared and sensible man cannot prefer his materialistic pursuits over his professional duties. Whatever his profession is, he knows that he should perform his duties according to the true spirit of his profession. Although such type of people know the importance of money for survival but their education and sensibility prevails their heart and mind and urge them to keep money as the second priority. ~~and~~ In this way these people prioritize serving <sup>the</sup> society, over any other desire.

Total words in original
Paragraph = 236

Words in Precis = 80