Translation:-

You are righteous if this world doesn't attract you, if your eyes get teary because of Almighty's fear, if the concept of hell inculcates in you - the fear of Almighty, if you worship Him in the way it should be, if good deeds attract you towards itself and if you restrict yourself from evil deeds. Some are righteous and some make themselves so. It is very lucky to be righteous. To be righteous, it is a continuous and struggling process. It takes time and requires a lot of challenges to be faced.
