

Title: Ardent people priorities

All the well educated and valiant men earn for living a better life. Money is cardinal for them to have basic commodities of life. Unlike most people food is not an item for them to satisfy their taste buds but a source of energy to be alive. They are more passionate about their profession and their first priority is their work. Albeit, salary is important for them but it will always remain on the second priority in their life.

Words in passage: \approx 229 words words in précis: 80 words
