If the world doesn't attract you if fear of God brings tears to your eyes, if imagination of hell scares you out of the fear of God, if you worship God in the way that He deserves, if goodness attracts you and you feel hesitation to follow up evil path, then you are righteous. Some are naturally righteous, while others struggle to become righteous.
Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous requires ^{continuous} self purification and efforts.
It takes time and requires bearing hardships.
