Batch 39.

Comprehension.

Q#01:

Ans: Most of us fail in our efforts of self improvement because our plans are somewhat away from reality. In making these plans, we forget the fact that we are only going to take a fresh start and there is need of smaller steps, rather than the longer ones.

Q#02: It is a basic mistake to announce our resolution to everybody because their comments might create negative energy, and we can feel demotivated even before starting working on it.

Q#03: An overnight party on New Year's Eve tired the writer, giving him an excuse for not working on his resolution.
