

English Comprehension T-1

ANS 1:

Self-improvement is continuous and tedious process. Many people overpush themselves to make extra-ordinary plans for self-improvement. Also, they do not have enough time to follow their plans. Hence, they fail in their efforts for self-improvement.

ANS 2:

Showing our plans to everybody has significant negative impacts on the success of our plans. It puts us under everyone's radar. The people mock our every step and it leads to failure of plans. Hence, it is a mistake to declare our resolution to everybody.

ANS 3:

There was an overnight party arranged on New Year's Eve. The writer went to that party and this made him feel relieved of his New Year's resolution. Due to this, he did not fulfill his Resolution on New Year's Day.
(resolution)

Ans-4:

a) Hypnotizing

b) Betrayed

c) diminish, wane

d) Fended off

e) Jibes