

Love of Humanity Leads to Love of God

Abu ben Adham woke up one night and saw an angel in his room. The angel was enlisting the names of those who love God in his Golden book. Abu's name was not there. However, he asked the angel to write his name among those who love humanity. The next night the angel showed Abu the list of God's beloved with his name on the top.

Total words : 67