

M. Nabeel

Assignment Translation

If the world does not attract you, if your eyes get tears in the fear of Allah, if the concept of Hell creates fear in you, if you say the worship properly, if virtue attracts, and your feet are stopped going on bad way, you are pious. Some are pious, and some become pious. Being pious is a matter of luck. Becoming pious is a continuous process of meditation and struggle. It takes time and difficult.