Q. If the world does not attract you, if tears come to your eyes in fear of Allah, if imagination of Hell frightens you, if you worship Allah on that level you desire, if goodness attracts you and stops you from the path of sin, then indeed, you are virtuous. Some are born virtuous, while others become virtuous. Being virtuous is a fortunate thing. Becoming virtuous is a continuous process of purification and striving. It takes time and one must endure hardships in this process.
