

God's Beloved People

One night, Abu Bin Adhem saw an angel scribbling something and asked about it. Angel told him that it is a list of God's beloved people but his name is absent. However, on Abu's request, he included his name as an altruist and disappeared. Next day, angel visited again and showed him the list with his name on top.