Translation:

If world does not pull you toward itself, if fear of Allah brings tears in your eyes, if concept of hell creates fear in you, if you worship the way you should, if virtue attracts you toward itself, and your steps stop toward the way of mischieves then you are pious. Some people are pious, some pretend to be. Being pious is fortunate. To become a pious is a deed of continuous struggle and purification. It takes time and also have to bear hardships.
