(Essay)

Globally, Politics is facing the problem of modern decline and bad governance is playing a role of catalyst in it. Moral decline in politics is creating turmoil and unrest in society which is leading the society world towards chaos and economic crisis. It must should be controlled through by taking proper measures and harmony otherwise it should lead the world towards anarchy and destruction.

.. In Pakistani politics moral decline is increasing day by day due to lust of power and lack of transparency.

A former prime-minister of Pakistan said while addressing to civil servants:

"Moral decline in politics is giving rise to the economic unrest and creating obstacles in smooth progress of the country"

Undue interference of politicians for their own interests, in institutions of administration and judiciary is creating moral degradation in politics of Pakistan. Unelected people are interfering in politics of Pakistan is giving rise to political degradation of society.

According to report of Kamathi University of social sciences in Australia "History fails to record a single precedent in which Pakistani nation subject to moral decay has not passed into political and economic decline"

An established morality is as necessary as good government to the welfare of society. Societies disintegrate from within more frequently than they are broken up by external pressures.

According to United Nations report (2022) December:

" In september 2022 mini-budget and disorganised vote in house of commons, ultimately resulted in government crisis in United Kingdom which is giving rise to the political instability and moral decline in politics"

Politicians in every country want to secure their power and they are using unfair means.

In many countries horse trading of politicians is giving rise to the moral decline in society and politics.

Moral decline in politics is giving rise to the conflicts over resources among the major countries.

According to UNESCO report March 2023:

The major wars between the developed countries are on the basis of resources and securing the interest of their own countries, 90% of anarchy in the world and destruction of peace is due to moral decline of global politics.

In thirdworld countries like Pakistan, corruption, lack of transparency, no accountability and many self-seeking politicians are the basis of political degradation.

For instance; In Pakistan 18th ammendment is bone of contention, between provinces and federal,
and politicians are giving rise to party politics and they don't want to develop those areas in which they have no govt., It is giving rise to moral decline in politics of Pakistan.

Political degradation is giving rise to the problems of stagnating growth and lack of productivity.

As the new governments in Pakistan after regime change and in UK
after financial crisis have completely failed to solve the problems of their countries. They are imposing taxes in their countries. So, the political degradation is giving rise to economic crisis in countries.

There are grave consequences of moral decline in politics, it is giving rise to many crisis situations, like govt. incompetence, economic problems, high treason, and political instability in the world.

Moral degradation is the playing vital role in political instability, which is causing conflicts among nations, and it is the basis of conflict itself.
