

If the world does not attract you if the team comes in your eyes because of fear of Allah, if you worship Allah like He is being worshipped. If goodness attracts you and your footsteps stop from going forward, still then you are a righteous. Some are righteous, some become righteous, to become righteous is matter of luck. To become righteous is an act of Farkins and Muhtadah. It takes time and to have bear pain.