Translation

You are virtuous if the world does not attract you towards itself, if tears shed away from your eyes with Allah's terror, if the thought of Hell frightened you, if you worship Allah as you should, if goodness attracts you towards itself and you stop to follow wrong path. Some people are virtuous and some become virtuous. It is fortunate to be a virtuous but becoming is a process of continuous purification and crusaderic. It takes ~~lot~~ time and pain have to bear.
