

English Précis Test - 1

Knowledgeable Man Prefers his Duty First :

Every wise ^{man} works hard to live luxurious life. But it's not the mainly concern of everyone's life. They work to serve people not merely to earn money ^{but} that provides pleasure to them. For instance, a good soldier, a doctor, or a clergyman, wants to succeed in his mission, not for being paid off or to earn good income but to serve the nation in their own way. Likewise, many other people work for humanity, not for earning money only.
