

Title : Money Is Not Everything.

To make money is not the chief object of life for a well educated man. As for healthy people dinner is not the object of their life. Similarly soldier fight for win battles not for money. clergyman's main object is preaching. For a doctor main desire of their life is to cure the sick not fees. So the work is first for all trained men than money.