Translation

If the world does not attract you, If the fear of Allah brings tears to the eyes, If the idea of Hell creates fear in you, If ^{you} ~~the~~ worship Allah as you should, If goodness attracts you & prevents you from going to the wrong path, then you are righteous. Some are righteous, Some try to become righteous. Being righteous is a matter of luck. Being righteous is a continuous ^{process} ~~matter~~ of purification and struggle. It takes time and pain.
