

Q#

Abu Adhem ~~the pious~~ once rose from slumber to see an angel scribbling something. Unfazed, he enquired what <sup>it was</sup> it was writing. On learning that it was writing names of God's beloved men and his was not there, he pleaded <sup>because he loved God's creations.</sup> for inclusion. Surprisingly, the next night when angel showed him the list, his name <sup>led</sup> led the rest's.

Title:

Abu Adhem: The Man of God

There is a difference between sleep and slumber.

Idea was generally comprehended well.

You write complex sentences, so you have to be careful about the structure and punctuation. Try to write more simple sentences.

message : 166

prescribed : 55 (1/3)

procured : 55