Write such title which explain idea more relevantly and defining the whole passage

The first objective of education should be to train the young to become content and go ahead in life and secondly to get different kinds of knowledge.
Subjects to be selected for studying should be according to the thinking. They can be classified in two heads: ones which can be accepted or rejected and those which can only be sensed and known. This means knowledge is divisible in either science or arts.

Good very good

Science subjects employ reasoning whereas subjects employing sentiments are categorized under arts.
Education should therefore develop observational skills and supply knowledge in the form of science and art.
