Title : Work is always more important than money.

Make it attractive

Precis Paragraph :

It is not possible for a <sup>Intellectual</sup> person to give more importance to the money than <sup>his</sup> their work. A person who is knowledgeable will always give priority to their work rather than the money. ~~They~~ put their work as a chief object in their life. The main goal of their work is not for the desire of any reward, but for the sake of their own satisfaction. In our daily lives we have so many examples from different professions who put their work on the very first and money on the second number.
