Translation

If the world fails to attract you, if you get teary eyes out of reverence of Allah, if you are afraid of hell, if you worship Allah as one should do, if you are drawn to good deeds and you refrain from wrongdoings, then it reflects that you are a pious person. However, some are pious while some try to become one. It is fortunate to be pious in the first place. While to become one, it takes continuous efforts. It consumes time and is a challenging task.
