

English Précis Test - 1

title is too long and looks like a sentence

Knowledgeable Man Prefers his Duty First :

Every wise ^{man} works hard to live luxurious life. But it's not the mainly concern of everyone's life. They work to serve people not merely to earn money ^{but} that provides pleasure to them. For instance, a good soldier, a doctor, or a clergyman, wants to succeed in his mission, not for being paid off or to earn good income but to serve ~~the nation~~ in their own way. Likewise, many other people work for humanity, not for earning money only.

main idea picked but unable to explain it in your own words over all below average content not satisfactory
need alot of improvement in expression

6/20