

ENGLISH PRECIS - Test: 1

Name: Afsheen Sultan Batch: 49

Campus: Online

Precis:

It is impracticable for a ^{Intellectual} literate and courageous person to only think for money. For all same people, the feeling of winning ^{earning} money is far better than money itself. All professional people prioritize their work. They like to get paid for it, but money is not the only purpose of their existence. Hence, for all well-educated and confident people ^{Good but you have eliminated the essence of example, write at least in a single sentence} work is always on the top of the list. Whereas, to get money for it, is also important but not a prime objective.

Title: Work As A Priority

Suggested titles for yesterday's preci
"Money is not the End"
"Profession as a priority over money"

Suggestions for improvements:
Do not make complex compound sentences
Begin and end precis with a precise sentence
Avoid enlisting
Do not explain all three examples separately, rather give an essence
Ideal words for this preci : 78