Solution

Title: Profession: worthier than Money

Precis:

incorrect interpretation

The thoughts of literate, wise, or brave man are as important as earning money for them. Earning is not the only concern for most of healthy people. They enjoy their professions which is better than just making money. No doubt soldiers, clergyman, and doctors are earning for themselves, but they also enjoying their work at same time. Work is always come first for them rather than their fee.
