Title : Educated and Brave Man Aim is to Serve, Not For Sake of Money.

Precis is too long.

So many grammatical errors.

The author describes the good qualities of a man, that an educated and a brave man always ^{does} their job for sake of his duties and ^{his} earning money just because of to fulfill their basic need of life. A healthy man enjoys the satisfaction of completing ^{his} task rather than enjoying money ^{earned} from completion of that task. For example a good soldier, ~~aim is to win a battle even if he did not pay for it.~~ The same case is for a clergyman, he will preach even if ~~you did not pay for preaching.~~ A doctor, ~~however like fee,~~ but if he is well educated and fashinated to their job their first preference will be for saving life ~~not for earning money.~~ The all others brave and educated men first priority is to serve and fulfill their duties and their second one will be of ~~to earn money from it.~~
