Translation:

lure

If world does not attract you, if you get tears in your eyes with the fear of Allah, if the idea of hell fears you up, if you worship Allah the way it should, if good deeds attract you and you restrain yourself from wrong deeds, then you are righteous. Some are righteous and come pretend to be righteous. Being a righteous is a fortune. To be righteous is a continuous process of purification and putting efforts. It takes time and sufferings has to be endured.
