If the world does not push you towards itself, if the fear of Allah breaks you into tears, if the image of hell creates fear of Allah in you, if you worship Allah the way He is to be worshipped, if you gravitate towards virtue, if your feet are prevented from the path of wrongdoing, then you are virtuous. Some are virtuous, some are made virtuous.

Being virtuous is fortunate. Becoming virtuous is a continuous act of ~~making~~ ~~the~~ ~~best~~ ~~of~~ ~~it~~ struggle and trying. It takes time and patience.

If you are not lured by the world, if your eyes get wet because of fear of Allah, if the thought of hell instills fear of God in you, if you worship Allah as it ought be done, if goodness attracts you and you refrain from evil paths, then you are righteous/pious. Some are born righteous, some become righteous. Being righteous is a fortunate thing. Becoming righteous is a continuous process of purification and struggle. It takes time and also requires enduring hardships.
