

if you are not attracted towards the worldly desires if you are not lured by the world

If world does not pull you toward itself

If fear of God bring tears in your eyes, if thought of hell bring fear in you, if you worship God the way it must be done, if a good deed attract you towards it and you abstain yourself from a bad deed then you are a righteous pure soul. Some are pure soul, some become pure soul. It is a good fortune to be a pure soul. It is a purification and struggle continuous process of edification and strenuous efforts to become a pure soul. It takes time and difficulties are to be faced.

and also requires enduring hardships
