Title: Qualities of a good general

A good general must be brave, strong, and smart. If a general remains calm in the danger situation then it is a great gift of God for command. Good health is also very important for a general. But a good general can be a young or old. Age does not determine the capabilities of a commander. If ~~we~~ somebody looks back ^{to} the history, he will find that many brave generals were above the age of 40 but they fought bravely and smartly. No doubt that young generals also have the capability to defeat the older generals. But the older generals have the advantage of experience over the young generals. Despite that lowering age of our generals is good step in the right direction.
