Robert Whiting; an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane at French customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on.

"You have been to France before" said Monsieur the Customs officer sarcastically. Mr Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passport ready".

The American said, the last time 'I was here I didn't have to show it.' "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France," sneered the custom officer.

The American senior gave the Frenchman a long, hard look.
