

Question No. 02:

Precis of the following passage with a suitable Title:

Title:

Age is just a number: It is the ability which count.

One must have physical and moral courage. Voltaire praises in Marlborough that courage in the middle of unrest is a natural gift for command. A military writer with no courage and spirit offset many of his grave strategical blunders. Health is an important but a relative quality because a great spirit can rule in a fragile body. One of the ancient Roman poets has highlighted the ease of an old man at war and in love. According to Hannibal, Alexander, Napoleon, Wellington, and Wolfe, the highest prizes of war are for the youth. In contrast, Julius Caesar and Cromwell began their soldiering at the age of above 40. Marlborough, Turenne, Moltke, Roberts, and Foch all are above the age of 60 but possessed energy and spirit. It is not possible to value the youth against the experience of the old. If an old man still has the courage, spirit, and zeal he will be considered over youth. But along with it a good young general will be superior over an old one. Generals at young age now a days is a step in the right direction.

Precised words: 186

Question No. 03:

Read the Passage and answer the question that follow:

Q.1: Infer from the passage how we "complicate our lives" List the ways in the order given.

Ans. According to the passage, we humans complicate our lives instead of seeking refuge in simplicity. List of the ways due to which humans complicate their life are given below:

① Machines do much of our work. ② Calculators relieve the torment of arithmetic. ③ Computers store our knowledge. But still we are worried, exhausted, less organized, and not happier. In a nut shell, we design ourselves to the steady growth of complexity.

Q.2: In the Passage, the writer makes a reference to "the wisdom of our ancestors." what example of it does he give or imply?

Ans. The writer makes a reference to "the wisdom of our ancestor." and imply an example that we can profit to some extent from the wisdom of our ancestors because they worked a lot in verse and prose of the English language. He implies an example that English language is the language of science and business.

Q.3: What does "the new Tower of Babel" refer to? Who are the chief designers or builders?

Ans. The new Tower of Babel refer to a nuclear war. That if one sad day a button is pressed in Washington to start a new Tower of Babel, it may well be that the button-pusher has misinterpreted an ill-constructed message. The chief designers of the new Tower of Babel are Americans.

Q.4. Give one example, implied in the passage, of what the psychologists & sociologists have been telling us. What is the writer's opinion of it.

Ans. The psychologists and sociologists have been telling us through the example implied in the passage that whatever the

M T W T F S

DATE: _____

Psychologists and sociologists may preach to us, we should derive the convention that parents disguise their worries from their family.

Q:4 Correct any Five of the following:

e. We had better left before the police arrive.
• We had left before the police arrive.

d. I am preparing for CSS exams since last October.
• I ~~am~~ have been preparing for CSS exams since last October.

f. My mother forbade me to not to smoke.
• My mother forbid me to not to smoke.

g. Many a child dream about becoming famous one day.
• Many a child dreaming about becoming famous one day.

h. The culture of our country is richer than any other country in the world.
• The culture of our country is richer than that of any other country in the world.

Question No: 5 part A

Punctuate the following passage:

Robert Whiting an elderly U.S. gentleman of 83 arrived in Paris by plane at French Customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on, "You have been to France before, Monsieur the Customs officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously then you should know enough to have your passport ready." The American said the last time I was here, I didn't have to show it. Impossible Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France, sneered the Customs officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long hard stare, then he quietly explained well, When I came ashore at Omaha Beach at 4:40 am on D-Day in 1944 to help liberate your country. I could not find a single Frenchman to show a passport to. You could have heard a pin drop.

Question No: 05 Part B

Rewrite only 5 sentences with appropriate prepositions.

1. Sentence No. 3:

He felt no qualms ~~with~~ by borrowing money from his friends.

2. Sentence No. 4:

Cyber-attacks are much easier to carry out than to defend ~~it~~.

3. Sentence No. 5:

The man was blind ~~in~~ on his left eye.

4. Sentence No. 6:

~~in~~ Despite being fined, he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

5. Sentence No. 7:

In some countries much of the natural environment has been transformed ~~in~~ into farmland.

Question No. 7:

Urdu to English Translation:

Thousands of hundreds of Pakistan's youth are count in the category of generation Z. This is a generation who are born after the year 2000, and today they crossed the age of 23, 24. In the history of the world, this generation is known to be weak both physically and psychologically. The growth of this generation took place in the era of technology. They have access to social media such as internet, Mobile phones, Tablet, and TV channel. Instead of elders, social media shaped their character. Lack of patience and more anger is the only problem of this generation. Their physical health is extremely weak and vulnerable. Generation-Z is taking too much time to achieve their goals.