COMPOSITION

Question: 03

⇒ Answers:-

1. We complicate our lives by relying too much on machines and technological revolutions. Instead of finding simple solutions, we use calculators to perform calculations and use computers to store data but all of this doesn't lessen our burden, rather it traps us into the world of anxiety and depression.

2. The reference to the "wisdom of our ancestors" in the passage is applied through the recommendation to prioritize simple and clear communication. It suggests that our ancestors valued clarity in conveying messages and information.

The Phrase "the new Tower^{of} Babel" in the passage refers ~~metamorpho~~ metaphorically to the potential chaos and confusion resulting from misconception

In this context, the passage attributes the potential creation of this metaphorical tower to the Americans, implying that they might be leading or contributing significantly to the issue of unclear communication that could lead to a serious consequences, like starting a nuclear war by mistakenly pressing a wrong button.

The passage implies the advice from Psychologist and sociologist regarding the impact of tension and stress on human wellbeing, Proposing 20th century misery. The writer acknowledges this idea but implies disagreement by reviving the notion that parents should hide their worries from their families

Passage Punctuation

Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane. At French customs, he took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. "You have been to France before, Monsieur?" the customs officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passport ready." The American said, "The last time I was here, I didn't have to show it." "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passport on arrival in France", sneered the customs officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long, hard look. Then he quietly explained, "Well, when I came ashore
